

Contact: Lizzette Quinones

Tel: (718) 510-6179

Email: Lizzette@letysfashion.com

For Immediate Release

A FRIENDLY CAFÉ OPENS FOR THE SOUTH SLOPE COMMUNITY

Brooklyn, New York, February 14, 2009 Gialetti's Café at 1658 Eighth Avenue (corner of Prospect Avenue) has opened its doors to the Park Slope and Windsor Terrace community. This coffee lover's dream place offers pastries, Panini's, crepes and more. All coffee lovers will enjoy not only a great cup of coffee but a friendly and welcoming place to eat and relax, whether they are alone, with a friend or with the kids.

During the successful grand opening on Valentine's Day February 14, 2009 the Brooklyn Boro President Marty Markowitz gave a proclamation and a warm welcome to Gia Noonan and Lety Sas the owners of Gialetti's Café for opening up a small business for the Brooklyn community. Customers experienced a fun filled atmosphere with delicious tastings all day long. The following day the PTA of P.S. 10 held their monthly breakfast meeting at Gialetti's café. The entire community of neighbors, students, teachers, parents and friends are very grateful to have Gialetti's in their neighborhood.

Gialetti's Café is planning to contribute to the welfare of the local community by serving and supporting charitable and civic activities and local businesses. Soon they will be launching a children's lunch bag program for busy parents and catering services for companies & residents of Park Slope. Gialetti's is also planning to launch "High Tea" Monday thru Friday from 4:00pm-5:30pm that will make you think you are at Harrods in London.

Coming up during the “Dine in Brooklyn” week March 23, 2009-April 2, 2009 Gialetti’s Café will offer 3 course lunch and dinner meals for $23.00.

The 3 course meals will feature:

Choice of 1 Appetizer, Salad or Soup

Choice of Entrée ranging from homemade pasta to chicken or shrimp

Choice of Dessert ranging from Tiramisu to signature crepes and more

During the Dine in Brooklyn event the café will extend their hours from 7 pm to 10 pm to accommodate the new dinner menu.

Gialetti’s Café’s mission statement is “All hearts are welcome.” Their goal is to consistently offer quality food that is fresh and delicious with good service and affordable prices. The café will have daily tastings, home made pastries, a kids menu and daily specials. The cafe is wheel-chair and stroller accessible, offers free wifi internet service, and has indoor and outdoor seating. A suggestion box is at the front counter for open suggestions from customers which the owners actually read and act upon. The café will be open 7 days a week Monday-Thursday 6:30am-7pm, Friday 6:30am-8pm, Saturday 7:30am-8pm and Sunday 8:30am-6pm.

-End-